Application

This is an application for judicial review in respect of Attorney General of Canada

Appeal of CRA Third Review May 11, 2023

The Applicant makes application for: Application for relief of repayment of Canada Recovery Benefit.

The grounds for the application are:

I applied for the CERB/CRB benefits in good faith. I read each requirement and believed I met the threshold to qualify for these benefits. I had received a severance payment from my former Employer in October 2019 in the amount of $10,128.00. I applied for the CERB/CRB based on my understanding this payment of $10,128.00 met the required income amount of five thousand dollars as outlined by the Canada Revenue Agency. The Canada Revenue Agency has informed me this payment does not qualify as income.

This application will be supported by the following material: Affidavit of Barbara Judt.

The Applicant is requesting the Canada Revenue Agency to send a certified true copy of the following material that is not in possession of the Applicant but is in possession of the Canada Revenue Agency to the Applicant and to the Registry.

Copies of any and all communication and documentation from June 8, 2022 to present both to and from, the Attorney General of Canada and the Canada Revenue Agency have had regarding my file in this matter.
