

Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP sought contribution and indemnity for any amounts it was found to be liable to Mr. Lipson in the main action.

[4] Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP has not identified and does not intend to identify any of the John Doe defendants.

[5] On March 19, 2013, the main action was certified as a class proceeding.

[6] On November 5, 2020, the third party claim against Deloitte & Touche LLP was dismissed.

[7] On January 7, 2021, the third party claims against Glenn F. Ploughman and Shelley Shifman were dismissed.

[8] On February 14, 2023, I approved a settlement that resolved the main action.

[9] Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP and the remaining third parties, Mintz & Partners, Prenick Langer LLP, Gardiner Roberts LLP and the Estate of Ronald J. Farano, deceased, have agreed to an Order dismissing the third party action with prejudice and without costs.

[10] Order to go as asked. I have signed the Order.

Perell, J.
